129.

(a) As soon as the annual tax levy has been made and placed in his hands, the treasurer shall prepare each taxpayer's bill and mail it to him at the address shown on a mailing list which the treasurer shall prepare for that purpose. The list shall contain the name and postoffice address of each taxpayer so far as ascertainable, and shall be updated from time to time.

(b) During the month of March succeeding each levy, the treasurer shall prepare in duplicate all tax bills which have not been paid and place them in the hands of the several constables of the districts in which the property assessed is located or the owners reside. The bills shall be delivered to the parties owning the property and each bill shall contain a notice that if it is not paid on or before June 1 next after the date of the bill, the property upon which taxes are owed shall be levied upon and sold to enforce their payment. Added to the principal sum of the State and county taxes in default and the interest on them shall be an additional sum of 25 cents for the payment of the costs of the service of the bill of taxes.

(c) The tax bills which were prepared in duplicate shall be placed in the hands of the constables on or before the first Monday of April after the date of the bill. One copy of each bill shall be:

(1) Delivered to the person or corporate institution against whom it is made out[ , ];
