

Arbitration, which shall consist of one person selected by the person making the appeal, one person selected by the board, and a third person selected by both of those persons. The decision of the Board of Arbitration, or a majority of its members, shall be final and [finding] BINDING upon all the parties to the appeal. The members of the board shall be paid the sum of $5 each, which sum shall be deposited with the board by the person taking the appeal. If the Board of Arbitration affirms the decision of the board, the money deposited shall be used to pay the board. However, if that decision is reversed, the Board of Arbitration shall be paid out of the funds in the hands of the board, and the deposit of $15 shall be returned. In addition, each applicant shall pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Electrical Examiners the sum of $25 for the license. Every person, firm or corporation before receiving a license shall make, execute and deliver to the board a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the board, in the name of the State of Maryland in the penal sum of $1,000. This bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of any and all work entered upon or contracted for by the Master Electrician and to save harmless the owner, or real party in interest in the property for which any electrical material is furnished or services performed, against loss, damage and injury which arise through want of skill, or through the failure to use suitable or proper material in the performance of any work contracted for or undertaken by the Master Electrician, or his or its agents or employees. An action may be maintained in the name of the owner or real party in interest only, if commences within one year from and after the date of the installation of the materials furnished or performance of the work or service.

166.

Any person, firm or corporation who practices, engages, or continues in the work of a Master Electrician without having complied with all the provisions of this sub-title; any person not licensed as a Master Electrician who does or performs any work of that nature except under the direction of a Master Electrician; and any person having been licensed as a Master Electrician who fails to renew his license and who does or performs any work of that nature or who violates any of the provisions of THIS sub-title is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $500 or to an imprisonment not exceeding 90 days, or both, in the discretion of the court. [any] ANY conviction on those grounds shall revoke and annul automatically any license that may have been issued to that person.

177D.

(d) A vacancy in the office of a member, other than by expiration, shall be filled in the manner as an original appointment but only for the remainder of the term of the retiring member. Members may be removed by the