(k) (1) A special revolving fund may be established by the State in the amount of at least $250,000, but not more than $500,000, for the purpose of providing financial support for the receiver under this section. This special revolving fund may only be utilized for expenditures which cannot be satisfied by private or third party reimbursements to the nursing home and may only be utilized with court approval. The special revolving fund shall be funded by the State out of the State funds allocated for that purpose. Prior to authorizing the use of any funds from the special revolving fund, the court shall hold a hearing at which the receiver and the owner of the nursing home may present evidence and testimony for or against the use of funds from
