

2. Category 2 - "Instructional materials and related costs"

Includes all other expenditures, including contracted services, supplies and materials of instruction, other charges and equipment, for activities dealing directly with the teaching of students, the interaction between teacher and students or the well-being of students. Teaching may be provided for in a school classroom, in another locale such as a home or hospital, and in other learning situations such as those involving cocurricular activities. It may also be provided through some other approved medium such as television, radio, telephone, and correspondence.

(a) Regular programs

Instructional activities designed primarily to prepare students for activities as citizens and family members.

Elementary programs

Middle/junior high programs

High school programs

Preparatory, postsecondary education programs

Preparatory, postsecondary employment programs

Other high school programs

Other regular programs

(b) Vocational-technical programs

Instructional activities designed primarily to provide training in one or more semiskilled, skilled, or technical occupations.

Agriculture

Distributive education

Health occupations

Home economics

Office occupations

Technical education

Trade and industrial occupations

(c) Adult/continuing education programs

Learning experiences designed to develop knowledge and skills to meet immediate and long-range educational objectives of adults who, having completed or interrupted formal schooling, have accepted adult roles and responsibilities.

Adult basic education programs

Advanced adult education programs

Occupational programs

Upgrading in current occupation programs

Retraining for new occupation programs

Special interest programs

Life enrichment programs