

Subsection (g) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from Art. II, § 15 of the State Constitution. For other provisions on removal, see: Art. XV, § 2 of the State Constitution, on suspension and removal for crimes; and Art. 41, § 4 of the Code, on removal for failure to attend meetings.

In subsection (a)(1) of this section, new language is added to clarify that there are 12 members on the Board.

As to subsection (a)(3) of this section, the reference to "other" counties is new language added in light of the definition of "county", which includes Baltimore City, in § 1-101 of this article.

In subsection (a)(4) of this section, as to the substitution of "with the advice of the Secretary" for "upon the recommendations of the Secretary", see the General Revisor's Note to this article.

In subsection (c)(2) and (3) of this section, the present reference to "embalmer" is deleted as unnecessary since the practice of embalming is encompassed by the practice of mortuary science.

Also in subsection (c)(2) and (3) of this section, "apprentice" is substituted for the term "embalmer-in-training" and "funeral director-in-training" in light of the provisions relating to apprentices in this title.

In subsections (e), (f), and (g) of this section, new language is added to clarify that the ex officio member is subject to the oath subsection but not to the qualifications, tenure, or removal subsections of this section. In addition, note that the ex officio member is not subject to the compensation and reimbursement provision in § 6-204(c) of this subtitle.

In subsection (g) of this section, the term "appointed" is added to clarify that the broad discretion of the Governor as to the removal of the Secretary is not limited by this provision.

Present Art. 43, § 340(b)(2)(v), which relates to participation by the consumer members in examination activities, now appears in § 6-304 of this title.

The last clause of present Art. 43, § 340(f), which sets out the initial term of one consumer member, is deleted as unnecessary in light of subsection (f)(1) of this section.
