

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived in part from Art. 43, § 340(b)(2)(v), § 346 -- except the first clause of that section -- and § 347(a).

Subsection (a) of this section is standard language added to this and, where necessary, corresponding sections of other titles of this article, as discussed in the General Revisor's Note to this article.

Also as to subsection (a) of this section, new language that relates to apprentices is added to clarify the sequence that occurs from training through apprenticeship to licensing. Also as to apprentices, see §§ 6-302 and 6-306 of this subtitle.

Subsection (c) of this section is standard language added to conform with present, similar provisions in Art. 43 that govern examination for licensing by other health occupation boards. It provides an element of fundamental fairness by requiring the Board to give qualified applicants notice before the administration of examinations.

Subsection (d)(4) of this section is derived in part from the last clause of the fourth sentence of Art. 43, § 347(a), which provides that the Board may include on an examination other subjects that it considers necessary and proper. In addition, standard language is added to this and, where necessary, corresponding sections of other titles of this article to state expressly provisions that presently are only implied in the law: i.e., that -- as long as the examination complies with requirements of this section -- the Board has control over the form and scoring of the required examination.

In subsection (d)(1) of this section, the terms "contagious" and "communicable" are deleted as unnecessary in light of the use of the term "infectious".

In subsection (d) of this section, the reference in present Art. 43, § 347(a) that requires the Board to examine an applicant concerning "the proper sanitation and disinfection of persons dying from infectious or contagious diseases", is deleted as archaic and, in any event, unnecessary in light of the broader provisions of this subsection.

As to subsection (d)(2)(ii) of this section, new language is added to clarify that the practical part of the examination is given in the presence
