

general circulation in the County and which may also be published in one or more journals having a circulation primarily among banks and investment bankers. At least one publication of the advertisement shall be made not less than ten (10) days before the sale of bonds.

Upon delivery of any bonds to the purchaser or purchasers, payment therefore shall be made to the Treasurer of Caroline County or such other official of the County as may be designated to receive such payment in a resolution passed by the Board of County Commissioners of Caroline County before such delivery.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the net proceeds of the sale of bonds shall be used and applied exclusively and solely for the public facilities for which the bonds are sold. If the net proceeds of the sale of any issue of bonds exceeds the amount needed to finance the public facilities described in the resolution, the excess funds so borrowed and not expended shall be applied to the payment of the next principal maturity of the bonds or to the redemption of any part of the bonds which have been made redeemable or to the purchase and cancellation of bonds, unless the County shall adopt a resolution allocating the excess funds to the construction, improvement, or development of other public facilities, as defined and within the limits set forth in this Act.

The authority granted under this Act shall not be exercised, nor shall any of the proceeds of the sale of bonds be used or applied, in any manner which would cause any bonds, refunding bonds, or bond anticipation notes issued hereunder or in connection herewith to be deemed "industrial development bonds" or "arbitrage bonds" within the meaning of Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the regulations prescribed thereunder.

SECTION 5. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the bonds hereby authorized shall constitute, and they shall so recite, an irrevocable pledge of the full faith and credit and unlimited taxing power of the County to the payment of the maturing principal of and interest on the bonds as and when they become payable. In each and every fiscal year that any of the bonds are outstanding, the County shall levy or cause to be levied ad valorem taxes upon all the assessable property within the corporate limits of the County in rate and amount sufficient to provide for or assume the payment, when due, of the principal of and interest on all the bonds maturing in each such fiscal year and, if the proceeds from the taxes so levied in any such fiscal year prove inadequate for such payment, additional taxes shall be levied in the succeeding fiscal year to make up any such deficiency. The County may apply to the payment of the principal of and interest on any bonds issued hereunder any funds received by it from the State of Maryland, the United States of America, any agency or instrumentality of either, or from any other source, if such
