

The fourth through eighth sentences of present Art. 43, § 355, which relate to the duties of the clerk of the court when an appeal is taken, the nature of the proceeding, the opportunity for the parties to be heard, and the function of the court on appeal, are deleted as duplicative of similar provisions in the Administrative Procedure Act.

In addition, the fifth sentence of present Art. 43, § 355, as that sentence relates to the summary nature of the appeal, is deleted as superseded by Art. 41, § 255(d) of the Code.

As to the stay provision in subsection (c) of this section, see the General Revisor's Note to this Article.
