

domiciliary or personal care services in a protective institutional environment to persons who because of advanced age, or physical or mental disability are not gainfully employed, or (ii) provide domiciliary care in a protective institutional or home-type environment to persons who because of advanced age, or physical or mental disability are not gainfully employed.] CARE HOMES SHALL MEET THE DEFINITION OF SUBSECTION (D) OF THIS SECTION AND SHALL PROVIDE CARE TO PERSONS WHO, BECAUSE OF ADVANCED AGE OR PHYSICAL OR MENTAL DISABILITY, REQUIRE EITHER DOMICILIARY OR PERSONAL CARE SERVICES IN A PROTECTIVE ENVIRONMENT.

(f) "Nonrelated individual" shall mean anyone who is not a son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, brother, sister, stepmother, stepfather, stepson, stepdaughter, husband or wife of the owner or lessee, or not an in-law of any one of the above persons.

(g) "Patient" shall mean any individual suffering from disease or disabilities or any individual who due to advanced age requires services or care.

(h) "Nursing care" shall mean services to patients requested or ordered by physicians and provided or supervised by registered or practical nurses licensed to practice in the State of Maryland.

(i) "Personal care" shall mean those services which an individual would normally perform for himself but for which he is personally dependent on others because of advanced age, infirmity, physical or mental limitations. Personal care includes (but is not limited to) assistance in walking, getting in and out of bed, bathing, dressing, feeding and general supervision and assistance in daily living.

(j) "Domiciliary care" shall mean those services provided to aged or disabled persons[, not gainfully employed,] in a protective institutional or home-type environment. These services include (but are not limited to) shelter, housekeeping services, board, facilities and resources for daily living, personal surveillance or direction in the activities of daily living.

(k) "Person" shall include any person, partnership, association or corporation or any State, county or local governmental unit and any division, board or agency thereof.

(l) "Board" except as otherwise used in §§ 564 and 567, and except where inapplicable, shall mean the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene.

(M) "APARTMENT UNIT" MEANS AN ENCLOSED, SELF-CONTAINED, LIVING SPACE IN A BUILDING, DESIGNED AND USED FOR RESIDENTIAL PURPOSES, WHICH HAS AT LEAST TWO SUCH UNITS.