

(a) (1) All funds received under this title, including the proceeds of the sale of abandoned property under § 17-120, shall be credited by the administrator to a special fund. The administrator shall retain in the special fund at the end of each fiscal year, from the proceeds received by him, an amount not to exceed $50,000, from which sum he shall pay any claim allowed by him or allowed by a court of law under this title.

(2) After deducting all costs incurred in administering this title on a pro rata basis, as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the balance of funds shall be distributed at least once annually or at any other time that the administrator in his discretion determines. The funds shall be allocated as follows:

(i) To each county of the State, the funds of owners whose last known address was shown by the records of the holder to be in the county; and

(ii) To the State for deposit in the general funds of the State, the funds of owners for whom there is no last known address in the State. FOR FISCAL YEAR 1982 ONLY, IN PLACE OF THE DISTRIBUTION AUTHORIZED ABOVE, THE ADMINISTRATOR SHALL DISTRIBUTE TO EACH COUNTY THE FOLLOWING FUNDS:
