

Annually, on or before June 1, of each year, the appointee shall disclose in writing, to the county governing body, all information available to update and make current his business and financial interests and property holdings in the State of Maryland and The Greater Washington Metropolitan Area, as well as information available to him concerning the business and financial interests and property holdings of the appointee's spouse, father, mother, brother, sister or child, and there shall be complete public disclosure by the county governing body of the information so received. The county governing body may require substantiation and additional information wherever the county governing body shall determine it necessary.

(c) In Montgomery and Prince George's Counties the county executive may, with the approval of a majority of the members of the county council of his county, remove any commissioner appointed from his county prior to the completion of the commissioner's term. In addition, a majority of the members of the Montgomery County Council, by resolution, may, unless the Montgomery County Executive disapproves the resolution in writing within 30 days of its adoption, remove any commissioner appointed from Montgomery County prior to the completion of the commissioner's term. Prior to any removal under this subsection, a public hearing shall be held thereon, in Montgomery County by the body initiating the removal proceeding, and in Prince George's County by the county council, unless a hearing is waived in writing by the commissioner sought to be removed. At such hearing an opportunity shall be given to the commissioner to present a defense in his or her own behalf. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any member of the commission in office on June 1, 1975 for the member's current term of office.

(d) Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the commission for any reason shall be filled as provided in this section for the unexpired portion of the term.

(e) With respect to the chairman, vice-chairman and commissioners who commenced their terms in such offices prior to June 1, 1972, the annual salary of the chairman of the commission shall be six thousand seven hundred dollars ($6,700.00); of the vice-chairman, six thousand four hundred dollars ($6,400.00); and of the other members of the commission six thousand two hundred dollars ($6,200.00), all payable bi-weekly, and for the chairman, vice-chairman and other members of the commission who, respectively, commence such term of office on June 1, 1972 or thereafter, whether by first appointment or election or reappointment or re-election, as elsewhere provided for in this section, the respective salaries shall be eight thousand five hundred dollars ($8,500.00), eight thousand three hundred dollars ($8,300.00) and eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00), all payable bi-weekly. The chairman and vice-chairman shall perform such duties as the commission shall from time to time designate. The commission shall, in June 1972, and in
