

carry out the provisions of this section. Any unused leave accumulated by any of the employees of the commission on June 1, 1961, shall be credited to their respective leave records.

11-12. Special consultants, etc.

Nothing in this [subheading] SUBTITLE contained shall prohibit the [said] commission from employing such consulting or other outside engineering services as it deems necessary from time to time.

11-13. Compensation of unauthorized persons.

Except in the case of temporary and emergency employees as herein provided for, no auditor or disbursing officer of the [said] commission shall approve the payment of or be in any manner concerned in paying, auditing or approving any salary, wage or other compensation for classified services unless the person to whom such salary, wage or other compensation is to be paid is a person in such classified service, or duly exempted or excepted by the commission under the provisions of this [subheading] ARTICLE.

11-14. Beneficiaries for classified employees.

The commission may by rule provide for the designation by a classified employee of the person or persons to whom the final salary payment and any sum which may be due for unused earned vacation leave should be made upon the death of such employee. The designation of the beneficiary shall be in writing and shall be on file with the commission before the death of the employee, but the writing need not be in testamentary form, and neither the designation nor the payment shall be deemed to be a testamentary disposition. The disbursing officer of the commission may pay over directly to the beneficiary or beneficiaries so designated by an employee such sum or sums as may be due and owing to the deceased employee for salary and for any unused earned vacation leave.

11-15. Prohibited acts.

No person shall wilfully or corruptly make any false mark or report upon any examination; no person shall impersonate another in any examination held under this [subheading] ARTICLE; no person shall, by himself or in cooperation with one or more persons, wilfully or corruptly defeat, deceive, or obstruct any person in respect to his right of examination under the provisions of this [subheading] ARTICLE, or falsely mark, grade, estimate or report upon the examination or standing of any person examined hereunder, or aid in so doing, or furnish to any person except in answer to inquiries of the state commissioner of personnel, any special information for the purpose of either improving or injuring the rating of any such person for appointment or employment. No applicant
