

Washington Suburban Sanitary District which are applicable to the water system of the Commission including taxes and other sums or charges levied by [said] THE commission in [said] THE sanitary district; provided, however, that the commission shall not levy any ad valorem or front foot benefit tax assessment or other charge within the aforementioned rural water area until such time as the construction of a water system shall be actually commenced, or an existing water system shall be extended to such area, and available to the property within such area, and when from time to time such a system is commenced or extended, then the area or areas affected by such commencement or extension shall be excluded from this provision.

19-57. Same -- Same -- Laytonsville, Damascus, Clarksburg and Gaithersburg districts.

(a) The first mentioned area herein described be and it is hereby added to and made a part of the rural water areas under the jurisdiction of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission created by chapter 122 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1918, the area herein described being an addition to the rural water areas created by chapter 710 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1959, and that the second and third areas herein described are hereby added to the Washington Suburban Sanitary District under the jurisdiction of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission created by chapter 122 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1918.

(1) Rural water area. All that area in the Laytonsville, Damascus, Clarksburg and Gaithersburg election districts of Montgomery County, Maryland, lying within the following described boundaries: Beginning for the same at a point on the south right of way line of the Potomac Electric Power Company's transmission line, [said] THE point being 500 feet northeast of, and at right angles to the northeast line of the Laytonsville-Olney Road, Route 108, and approximately 14,000 feet northwest of the existing boundary of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District at the intersection of the Laytonsville-Olney Road, with the Bowie Mill Road and running thence in a generally northwesterly direction, northeast of, parallel to and 500 feet distant from the northeast line of the Laytonsville-Olney Road and the Laytonsville-Etchison Road, to the centerline of the Etchison-Damascus Road, thence in a northeasterly direction and at right angles to the Etchison-Damascus Road to a point 300 feet northeast of the centerline of the Etchison-Damascus Road, thence in a generally northwesterly direction, northeast of, parallel to and 300 feet distant from the centerline of the Etchison-Damascus Road, to the centerline of the Mullinix Mill Road, thence in a straight line, in a northwesterly direction to a point 300 feet due east of the centerline intersection of the Damascus-Ridgeville Road, Route 27, with the Kemptown Road, Route 80, thence in a generally northwesterly direction, northeast of, parallel to and 300 feet distant from the