

Very truly yours,
Stephen H. Sachs
Attorney General

1/The subsequent references in subsection (e) to "such note, bond, or other evidence of the total indebtedness" or, simply, "the note" are somewhat inconsistent with but evidently refer back to the antecedent language quoted above.

2/We also note that there is an apparent inconsistency between the provisions of proposed new § 3-105(e) and those of present § 7-103, as described more fully in the letter to you of April 22, 1981, from Charles T. Albert, Esq., on behalf of the Code Revision Committee of the Real Property Planning and Zoning Commission of the Maryland State Bar Association.

Senate Bill No. 421

AN ACT concerning

Teachers' Retirement and Pension Systems - Collection of Money Due the State

FOR the purpose of altering the method of collecting certain delinquent payments owed to the State; authorizing the use of a setoff procedure ~~ex-lawsuit~~ to collect debts owed to the State for the employer's share of the cost of the certain systems; providing a procedure for appealing certain decisions; and providing that the appeals may not be considered contested cases.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article 73B - Pensions
Section 39(e)
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1978 Replacement Volume and 1980 Supplement)

BY adding to

Article 73B - Pensions
Section 89(2)(k), 110(k), and 150(2)(j)
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1978 Replacement Volume and 1980 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That section(s) of the Annotated Code of Maryland be repealed, amended, or enacted to read as follows:
