

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

Commissioner of Correction that:

- (1) None of these inmates has been convicted of a crime of violence, as that term is defined in Code, Art. 27, § 710(C)c (viz., "... abduction, arson, kidnapping, maiming, murder, rape, robbery, including robbery with a deadly weapon and assault with intent to commit any of these crimes");
- (2) No detainers have been filed against any of these prisoners, except for payable fines or for traffic, non-support or non-violent misdemeanors;
- (3) None of these inmates have been convicted of escape, attempted escape, possession of CDS with intent to distribute, or any sex related offense;
- (4) As of December 24, 1980, each of these inmates will have served 25% or more of his sentence;
- (5) Each of the following inmates is scheduled for mandatory discharge from incarceration by operation of law between December 24, 1980 and June 24, 1981; and
- (6) Each of these inmates can be released without danger to the public safety; and

WHEREAS, Having carefully considered the recommendations of the Commissioner of Correction which have been made to me;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY HUGHES, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, having thought proper the extension of clemency in the following cases do hereby, pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of Maryland, grant:

I. To the persons listed in Attachment I an unconditional commutation of the remainder of the sentences as imposed for the terms, on the dates, by the courts, and in the places of detention indicated.

II. To the persons listed in Attachment II a conditional commutation of the remainder of their sentences as imposed for the terms, on the dates, by the courts, and in the places of detention indicated, the conditions being that, during that period of time between their release from custody under this Order and expiration of the
