

wastes; and

WHEREAS, the people and public officials of this County have planned for the future disposition of solid waste to be generated in this County beyond the end of the twentieth century; and

WHEREAS, the planning and construction of similar facilities in certain surrounding jurisdictions has not kept pace with the demand for the capacity to dispose of waste generated in those jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Anne Arundel County, Maryland and their elected officials have no obligation to provide such facilities for the benefit of other Maryland subdivisions; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the conditions in these jurisdictions, continually enlarging amounts of solid waste generated elsewhere in the State of Maryland is being transported to Anne Arundel County for deposit in a landfill owned and operated by Anne Arundel County; and

WHEREAS, such increased, unplanned, and unanticipated utilization of a valuable and limited resource has caused and will continue to cause an unfair, harsh, and heavy burden on the resources of Anne Arundel County; and

WHEREAS, in order to properly handle and dispose of the unanticipated and excessive burden of intrastate solid waste, it will become necessary to research, plan, license, construct, operate, and maintain new and expanded facilities which would be unnecessary in the absence of this burden; and

WHEREAS, it is the finding of the County Council of Anne Arundel County, Maryland, that it is reasonable, fair, and proper that the solid waste which has precipitated the situation and which is the subject of this enactment bear the burden of its resolution;
