

WHEREAS, pre-trial confinement is a hardship for an unconvicted defendant and is costly to the County; and

WHEREAS, a third party custody program offers to the court an alternative for pre-trial disposition of defendants in certain criminal cases; and

WHEREAS, the Administrative Judge of the District Court of Maryland for District Number 5 has strongly recommended the County fund a third party custodial program; and

WHEREAS, the District Public Defender for Prince George's County has written that such a service in this County for the past two years has been progressive, beneficial, and responsible; and

WHEREAS, the Director of the County Department of Corrections has stated that a program of this nature is valuable to the people of the County and is strongly supported by him; and

WHEREAS, the County Chief Administrative Officer has written that successful implementation of a third party custody program will bring some relief to overcrowded conditions in the Detention Center; therefore

Approved November 18, 1980.
