

REVISOR'S NOTE: Subsection (a) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from the first sentence of Art. 43, § 474(b) and is revised in the standard language used for corresponding sections of other titles of this article. See the General Revisor's Note to this article.

Subsections (b), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) of this section are new language derived without substantive change from the first sentence, the second clause of the second sentence, and the entire third, fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh sentences of Art. 43, § 471 and the second through fifth sentences of § 474(b).

Subsection (c) of this section, which is derived in part from the first sentence of Art. 43, § 471, as that sentence relates to notice, is revised in standard language used to conform with present, similar provisions in Art. 43, that govern examination for licensing by other health occupations boards. It provides an element of fundamental fairness by requiring the Board to give qualified applicants notice before the administration of examinations.

Subsection (d)(2) of this section is new language added to this and corresponding sections of other titles of this article to state expressly a power of the Board that presently is only implied in the law: i.e., that the Board has control over the subjects, scope, and form of examinations.

Subsection (i) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from Art. 43, § 467(a)(5).

In subsection (d)(4) of this section, the reference to supplementary examinations is substituted for the enumeration of types of supplementary examinations in present Art. 43, § 471.

In subsection (i) of this section, the word "authorized" is substituted for "approved", for clarity.

The first clause of the second sentence of present Art. 43, § 471, which relates to a quorum of the Board, now appears in § 11-204 of this title.

The last clause of the second sentence of present Art. 43, § 471, which relates to the issuance of a license after an affirmative vote of three Board members, now appears in § 11-306 of this subtitle.
