

Subsection (b) of this section is new language derived in part from the last clause of Art. 43, § 478.

The General Assembly may wish to consider that while present Art. 43, § 478 states that a public official may not accept a birth or death certificate from a licensee under this title, the effect of this provision is that a licensee under this title may not prepare or file a birth or death certificate.

The first clause of present Art. 43, § 478, which refers to a doctor of osteopathy being subject to contagious disease regulations, is deleted as misleading and as repetitive of other independent provisions of law.
