

REVISOR'S NOTE: Subsection (a) of this section is new language derived in part from the second clause of the second sentence of Art. 43, § 249, which prohibits an unlicensed individual from compounding prescriptions. It is rephrased in the standard language used throughout this article to state affirmatively that an individual must be licensed to practice a health occupation in this State. See also § 12-701 of this title.

Subsection (b) of this section is new language derived from the reference in Art. 43, § 250(c) to "a pharmacy intern acting under the direct supervision of a pharmacist". Clinical pharmacy training programs also are recognized implicitly by the reference to "§ pharmaceutical § experience demanded" in present Art. 43, § 263.
