

As to the application of this section, the Board of Review has general jurisdiction over final decisions of the Board under this subtitle. Therefore, for some actions, a decision of the Board of Review is a prerequisite to judicial review. Subsection (a) of this section reflects that general procedure. The Board of Review, however, does not have jurisdiction over any disciplinary action taken by the Board. Consequently, subsection (b) of this section expressly provides for direct judicial review for persons aggrieved under § 16-312 of this subtitle.

The new language added in this section better coordinates the combined requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act and the laws regarding the Board of Review. These provisions apply in any event. No substantive change is intended.

The only other changes are in style.
