

The term "certification" is substituted for "registration" in light of the definition of "certificate" in § 17-101 of this title.

In subsection (b) of this section, the phrase "that meet the standards set by the Board" is substituted for the phrases "satisfactory experience" and "experience satisfactory to the Board" to clarify the duty of the Board to set standards.

In subsection (b)(1)(ii) of this section, the phrase "that meets the education standards set by the Board" is substituted for the term "acceptable" to clarify the duty of the Board to set education standards.

Subsection (c) of this section is standard language added to this and, where necessary, corresponding sections of other titles of this article to state expressly that if an applicant for certification is required to take an examination under this subtitle, then the applicant must pass the examination before the applicant is eligible for certification.

The examination requirements of present Art. 43, § 727 now appear in § 17-305 of this subtitle.

Present Art. 43, § 726(d)(9), which relates to the Board reviewing applications for certification and which provides for discretionary waiver for applications received before July 1, 1970, is deleted as obsolete in part, and, to the extent that it is not obsolete, as unnecessary in light of the more specific provisions of this section and § 17-303 of this subtitle.
