

(h) Each party state providing for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured members and the representatives of deceased members of its National Guard forces in case such members sustain injuries or are killed within their own state, shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits in the same manner and on the same terms in case such members sustain injury or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this compact. Such compensation and death benefits shall be deemed items of expense reimbursable pursuant to paragraph (f) of this article.

(i) In the event of any dispute between states as to the property, amount of or items included in any claim of a responding state, the governors of the requesting state and such responding state, on the demand of either, shall submit the same to arbitration by a panel of five persons consisting of the commanding officer of the National Guard forces of each such state, a person selected by each of said governors and a fifth person designated by the attorneys general of said states. In the event of the failure of said attorneys general to agree on such fifth person, then a person chosen by lot from among not more than three nominees of each such attorney general shall serve. The panel shall select its place or places of meeting and the time thereof, to conduct its proceedings in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association and have power or subpoena. The cost and expenses of conducting such arbitration and the fee, if any, of the arbitrators shall be provided initially by the said states in equal shares subject to the final award of the panel. The determination of the panel shall be final and the amount of the award shall be payable within 30 days thereafter.]

[93.

Article IV. Delegation

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent the governor of a party state from delegating any of his responsibilities or authority respecting the National Guard, provided that such delegation is otherwise in accordance with law. For purposes of this compact, however, the governor shall not delegate the power to request assistance from another state.]

[94.

Article V. Limitations

Nothing in this compact shall:

(a) Expand or add to the functions of the National Guard, except with respect to the jurisdictions within which such functions may be performed.