As to subsection (a)(2) of this section, the restriction on the Board against requiring an audiologist who applies for reinstatement within a 5-year period to take an examination, is deleted as unnecessary in light of the reference to the renewal requirements of § 2-308 of this subtitle. See Kahn v. State Board of Examiners of Optometry, 162 Md. 667 (1932), for possible application as to the status and rights of a former licensee who has failed to renew the license and who then seeks reinstatement.
