

(g) This subsection shall apply only to injuries occurring on or after July 1, 1968.

(10) (a) Any employee who is permanently and totally disabled as the result of any injury suffered prior to July 1, 1973, and July 1, 1965, and who is receiving benefits as a result of the injury on July 1, 1973, for permanent and total disability shall be entitled to a supplemental allowance of compensation as calculated under paragraph (b) provided that the supplemental allowance received when added to the present compensation received shall not exceed the maximum weekly benefit provided in § 36(2) of this article, subject to change from time to time. The State Accident Fund, insurance carrier or self-insured employer shall pay the supplemental allowance, and shall notify the Commission upon its decision to pay a supplemental allowance under this section. The supplemental allowance shall continue only for the number of weeks that the employee is entitled to receive benefits under his original award.

(b) The employees eligible under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be entitled to a weekly supplemental allowance equal to the product of the following two numbers:

(1) The difference between the maximum fixed weekly benefit provided in § 36(2) of this article, as it may change from time to time, and the maximum fixed weekly benefit applicable at the time the award was made; and

(2) The quotient of the actual weekly benefit at the time the award was made and the maximum fixed weekly benefit applicable at the time the award was made.

(11) A provision in this section may not be construed to change the law pertaining to an injury or disease occurring prior to the effective date of any provision in this section for which a claim under this article is made. A provision in this section may not be construed to change the payment basis in effect at the time an injury or disease occurs for which a claim is made under this article.

(12) Any compensation received under this article shall be computed in accordance with the applicable schedule in this section. The rate of compensation for any disability under this section shall be computed to the next highest dollar in all cases in which the rate of computation results in an uneven amount.

(13) If the Commission finds that any compensation payment awarded pursuant to this article has not been paid, through the fault of the insurer or self-insurer, by the thirty-first day after the order therefor was issued or the
