

education program approved by the Administrative Office of the Courts as a condition of the suspension of sentence, unless the court finds and affirmatively states on the record that the interests of the person and the people of the State do not require the imposition of this condition.

(C) In Prince George's County, the courts may also [and they are hereby empowered to] impose such sentences as may be provided by law with respect to the offense upon which an accused has been convicted and cause the convict to serve [such] THE sentence by attendance at the county detention center or place of confinement under the jurisdiction of the sheriff, where the sentence is to be performed during any 48-hour period, in any [seven-day] 7 DAY period, with each period of confinement to constitute not less than [two] 2 days of the sentence imposed; provided, however, THAT the offense leading to such conviction shall permit confinement in the county detention center and the total sentence imposed by the judge [shall] MAY not exceed 30 [two-day] 2 DAY periods of confinement.

(a) (1) (i) Whenever a person accused of a crime pleads guilty or nolo contendere or is found guilty of an offense, a court exercising criminal jurisdiction, if satisfied that the best interests of the person and the welfare of the people of the State would be served thereby, and with the written consent of the person after determination of guilt or acceptance of a nolo contendere plea, may stay the entering of judgment, defer further proceedings, and place the person on probation subject to reasonable terms and conditions as appropriate. The terms and conditions may include ordering the person to pay a fine or pecuniary penalty to the State, or to make restitution, but before the court orders a fine, pecuniary penalty, or restitution the person is entitled to notice and a hearing to determine the amount of the fine, pecuniary penalty, or restitution, what payment will be required, and how payment will be made. The terms and conditions also may include any type of rehabilitation program or clinic, or similar program, or the parks program or voluntary hospital program.

(ii) -f-However, when the offense for which the judgment is being stayed is for violation of section 21-902(a) or 21-902(b) of the Transportation Article, the court shall impose a period of probation and as a condition thereof require the person to participate in an alcohol treatment or education program approved by the Administrative Office of the Court as a condition of the probation, unless the court finds and affirmatively states on the record that the interests of the person and the people of the State do not require the imposition of this condition.
