

[(iii) The Commission thereupon shall notify each self-insured employer, each insurance carrier, and the State Accident Fund that the contributions are to be resumed as of a specified date and to continue until the fund again amounts to $500,000.]

93.

[Upon notice to the fund, the] THE Commission, if in its discretion it deems the interests of the fund will be best served thereby, may compromise the amount for which judgment has been entered against an employer pursuant to this subtitle and the judgment entered may be modified accordingly. Such compromise shall be effective without the necessity of obtaining the approval of any other State officials thereto, but shall not reduce the amount of benefits payable to or on behalf of any claimant.

94.

The Commission shall request the Attorney General to furnish a member of his staff to serve as the representative of the fund and shall assign to assist him in the discharge of his duties as such representative, such other employees of the Commission as may be necessary for this purpose. Such representative may apply to the Commission for authority to hire such medical and other experts and to defray the expense thereof and of such witnesses as are necessary to a proper defense of the claim within an amount in the discretion of the Commission and, if authorized, such amount shall be a charge against the fund. The representative of the fund may appear for and represent the interest of the fund in any case in court involving the rights of the fund against another not in the same employ as the employee who received benefits under this article and whose injury or death was caused by the negligence or wrong of such other. THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE FUND IS AUTHORIZED ONLY TO REPRESENT THE UNINSURED EMPLOYERS' FUND UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE COMMISSION, AND MAY NOT REPRESENT ANY OTHER PARTY IN INTEREST IN ANY CLAIM UNDER THIS ARTICLE.

The provisions of this article with respect to procedure and the right to appeal to the courts shall be reserved to the claimant, and to the uninsured employer, and to the fund[, in the event the fund, pursuant to § 90 of this subtitle, has objected to the findings and decision on which an award is based, the award made, or the liability of the fund for payment thereof].

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the members constituting the Workmen's Compensation Fund Board under
