

(4) If a trustee files a schedule of increased rates as provided in this subsection, the trustee shall give notice to the ascertained beneficiaries of each affected trust by the beginning of the fiscal year to which the schedule applies. Any beneficiary of a trust who objects to the schedule of rates to be charged to that trust, after notifying the trustee of the objection, may petition the appropriate equity court to review the reasonableness of the rates to be charged. If the court finds that the rates in the schedule are unreasonable for the current fiscal year of the particular trust, the trustee's commissions for that trust for that fiscal year shall be limited to the rates charged that trust during the previous fiscal year.

(5) If a trustee does not file a schedule of rates with the appropriate agency and notify ascertained beneficiaries as previously provided in this subsection, the trustee is limited to charging the rates set forth in subsections (b) and (c) of this section.
