

reference to "appeal therefrom to any court having equity jurisdiction" is deleted as included in "for judicial review of final decisions in the Administrative Procedure Act". The Administrative Procedure Act requires appeals from agency decisions to be brought in a Circuit Court, see Article 41, § 255 of the Code. Since an administrative law case is outside the equity jurisdiction of the District Court, see CJ §§ 4-401 and 4-402(a), the references to a Circuit Court in the Administrative Procedure Act are exhaustive and the language "any court having equity jurisdiction" is unnecessary and obsolete.
