

Former Article 43, § 107, which dealt with the discretion of a judge in issuing an order to abate a nuisance, is deleted as unnecessary in light of the discretionary powers given under the Courts Article. See Schneider v. Hawkins, 179 Md. 21, 25 (1940) as to judicial discretion.

Former Article 43, § 113, which dealt with the collection of final judgments, is deleted as obsolete and unnecessary in light of the Maryland Rules of Procedure.

Former Article 43, § 114, which dealt with the payment to the Secretary of final judgments collected by counties, is deleted as obsolete.

Former Article 43, § 115, which provided that any judgment or interest on a judgment paid to the Secretary under this subtitle shall become part of the General Fund of this State, is deleted as unnecessary.

The General Assembly may wish to consider undertaking a substantive revision of this title. There are many problems in this title -- e.g., archaic and obsolete provisions -- that this revision could not address.
