

(2) Computations required by the provisions of subsection [(a)(5)] (A)(3) shall be made by the Executive Director, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the United States Secretary of Labor.

(k) (1) An individual shall be disqualified for extended benefits for any week of unemployment in his eligibility period during which he fails to accept any offer of suitable work or fails to apply for any suitable work to which he is referred by the Executive Director. Such disqualification shall thereafter continue until the individual has been employed during at least 4 weeks which begin after his failure to apply for or accept suitable work and has earnings therein equal to at least four times his weekly extended benefit amount.

(2) Except as provided in [subsection] PARAGRAPH (3), for the purposes of this section "suitable work" means:

(i) The work is within the individual's capabilities;

(ii) The gross average weekly remuneration payable for the work exceeds the sum of the individual's weekly extended benefit amount plus any supplemental unemployment compensation benefits (as defined in Section 501(c)(17)(d) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code) payable to the individual for the week;

(iii) The wages for the work are equal to or exceed the higher of the minimum wage provided by Section 6(a)(1) of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, without regard to any exemptions, or any applicable state or local minimum wage;

(iv) The work is listed with the Division of Employment Service [and] OR is offered to the individual in writing, and;

(v) The work is suitable under the provisions of Section 6(d) to the extent that such provisions are not inconsistent with the provisions of [paragraph] PARAGRAPHS (2)(i) through (iv) of this subsection.

(3) If the individual furnishes evidence satisfactory to the Executive Director that his prospects of obtaining work in his customary occupation within a reasonably short period are good, the determination of whether any work is suitable shall be made in accordance with Section 6(d) rather than in accordance with [subsection] PARAGRAPH (2) of this [section] SUBSECTION.
