

sources to a sum equal to 2 cents times the number of registered voters in Howard County on the first day of January next preceding the primary or general election.

(2) All candidates and nominees shall file information relating to their campaign expenditures in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(3) If the campaign expenditures of any candidate or nominee exceed the sum permitted under paragraph (1) of this subsection, that candidate or nominee shall forfeit any office on the board to which he was elected.

(c) The board of supervisors of elections of Howard County shall provide for the election of members of the Board of Education as herein provided. Provisions shall be made for use of voting machines, or, in the alternative, for the use of paper ballots under the conditions herein prescribed. The names of all candidates who have been duly nominated under the provisions of subsection (a) of this section for election to the several Board of Education offices shall, except in the case of death, be placed on the ballot. The board of supervisors of elections shall provide the means whereby all registered voters of Howard County, irrespective of party affiliation, may vote for said nominees for the board in the primary election or for the candidates for the board in the general election. The candidates, equal to the number of members to be elected to the board, who receive the largest number of votes at the general election shall be declared elected for the respective Board of Education offices. All voting for the board members, either in a primary election or in a general election, shall be conducted on a nonpartisan basis and on a general countywide ticket; no designation of party affiliation shall be placed upon any petition for nomination, nor upon any voting machine or paper ballot used at any said primary or general election.]
