

(2) A person may not designate a party affiliation on a petition required by this section.

(3) A person seeking candidacy shall designate on the petition the commissioner district from which the person seeks election, or designate that the person is seeking election from the county at large.

(b) A candidate shall disclose to the board of supervisors of elections the information delineated in this article that concerns campaign receipts and expenditures. The board of supervisors of elections shall make the disclosed information available to the public.

(c) The board of supervisors of elections of Somerset County shall establish procedures for the election of members of the Board of Education, and if required for a primary election, the board of supervisors of elections shall place the names of all candidates on the ballot, with no designation of party affiliation, in a manner to allow a nonpartisan election.

(d) If more than two candidates file for a particular seat on the Board of Education, the board of supervisors of elections shall hold a primary election at the same time as the primary election for other elected officers. Only those two persons who receive the greatest number of votes for a particular seat shall be placed on the ballot for the general election.

(e) The candidate from each of the four commissioner districts who receives the greatest number of votes cast countywide shall be declared elected to the board from that commissioner district. The candidate who receives the greatest number of votes of any candidate seeking election at large shall be declared elected to the board.]
