

In subsection (b) of this section, reference to a "delinquent act" is substituted for "delinquency", to conform to the terminology in the Courts Article.

Also in subsection (b) of this section and the reference to "a charge that is or could be adjudicated as a delinquent act", note that CJ § 3-815(d) prohibits detention of a child alleged to be delinquent with children so adjudicated. In practice, the Center is divided into 2 units to keep these children separated.

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former reference to a child in "need of supervision" is deleted in light of CJ § 3-815(e), which prohibits any detention of a child in need of supervision or in need of assistance.

In subsection (d)(2) of this section, the reference to an order for detention "by a court of competent jurisdiction" is substituted for the reference to filing "a formal petition ... in the proper circuit court or juvenile court and {having} detention ordered thereunder", since the provisions of Title 3, Subtitle 8 of the Courts Article govern the procedures for obtaining a detention order.

Also in subsection (d)(2) of this section, the reference to "the period permitted under paragraph (1)" is substituted for the reference to "the twenty-four-hour period ..." to reflect the allowance for Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays in subsection (d)(1) of this section.

The only other changes are in style.
