

- (1) An oral or written request;
- (2) An announcement to the news media for further dissemination by it of an appeal or campaign seeking contributions from the public for one or more charitable purposes.
- (3) The distribution, circulation, posting, or publishing of any handbill, written advertisement, or other publication which, directly or by implication, seeks contributions by the public for one or more charitable purposes; and
- (4) The sale of, or offer or attempt to sell, any advertisement, advertising space, book card, tag, coupon, device, magazine, membership, subscription, ticket, admission, chance, merchandise, or other tangible item in connection with which (i) an appeal is made for contributions to one or more charitable purposes, or (ii) the name of a charitable organization is used or referred to as an inducement to make such a purchase, or (iii) a statement is made that the whole or any part of the proceeds from the sale is to be used for one or more charitable purposes. A solicitation is deemed to have taken place when the request is made, whether or not the person making it actually receives a contribution.

(j) "Charitable salvage organization" means an organization which solicits, receives, or collects any used or secondhand personal property, including but not limited to household goods, furniture, appliance or clothing which are then displayed or resold to the general public at one or more retail-type establishments.

Article - Commercial Law

12-501.

(n) (1) "Services" means work, labor, and services furnished primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(2) "Services" includes:

(I) [services] SERVICES furnished in connection with the improvement of real property; AND

(II) CONTRIBUTIONS TO A "CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION" AS DEFINED IN ARTICLE 41 OF THE CODE.

(3) "Services" does not include any:

(i) Work, labor, or service furnished primarily for industrial, commercial, or agricultural purposes; or