

1. Whether each service is available; and

2. The additional charge, if any, for each service; and

(v) Give any other information that federal law requires.

(c) Each pharmacy shall mark clearly on the chart:

(1) The prescription price charged by the pharmacy for each of the listed drugs;

(2) Which of the professional or convenience services the pharmacy offers; and

(3) Any additional charge that the pharmacy makes for each professional or convenience service it offers.

(d) The completed chart shall be displayed conspicuously in the immediate vicinity of the prescription drug service area so that customers can read it easily without the need to obtain permission or assistance from the personnel of the establishment in which the pharmacy is located.

(e) A pharmacy may change the prescription price of a listed drug only if the displayed price is adjusted to reflect the new prescription price at the same time.

(f) After consultation with the Maryland Pharmaceutical Association and the Consumer Council of the Consumer Protection Division of the Office of the Attorney General, the Board shall adopt rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this section. The rules and regulations shall include provisions that govern:

(1) The size and form of the chart;

(2) The strength and quantity for which the prescription price of a listed drug is to be stated; and

(3) The methods by which the chart shall be displayed.]
