CHAPTER 442

(House Bill 1577)

AN ACT concerning

Migrant Agricultural Workers -
Farm Labor Contractor Registration

FOR the purpose of requiring farm labor contractors to obtain a certificate of registration from the Commissioner of Labor and Industry for certain activities; establishing a certain registration fee; defining terms; imposing certain duties on farm labor contractors regarding the employment, housing, and transportation of migrant agricultural workers in Maryland; requiring certain agricultural employers and agricultural associations to verify the registration status of a farm labor contractor prior to using migrant agricultural workers supplied by a farm labor contractor either by examining the contractor's certificate of registration or requesting verification from the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and
