

(b) Any official court reporter appointed prior to January 1, 1956, who having served less than twenty-five preceding consecutive years and being under seventy years of age, shall become physically or mentally incapable of performing the duties of that position by reason of ailments or accidents not resulting from his own misconduct, shall be entitled during the period of such incapacity to a retirement salary of [~~$7,500~~] ~~$9,000~~ $8,000 per annum.

(c) Every court reporter otherwise entitled to a retirement salary under subsections (a) or (b) above, shall receive such salary only when such retired reporter's earned income is less than $4,000 per annum; and the amount of such retirement salary shall be the difference between the retired reporter's earned income and the $4,000 maximum provided herein. In order to claim a retirement salary under this Section, each court reporter retired by reason of incapacity shall, on January 1st of each year, file with the Administrator of the Supreme Bench a statement showing (1) his earned income for the previous year, and (2) his anticipated earnings for the ensuing year, together with a medical statement satisfactory to the Medical Service Division of the Baltimore City Civil Service Commission that he remains incapable of performing the duties of a court reporter.

(d) No reporter appointed after January 1, 1956, shall be entitled to a retirement salary under this Section.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1982.

Approved May 20, 1982.

CHAPTER 445

(House Bill 1613)

AN ACT concerning

Motor Fuel Inspection Law - Advertising Price and Display of Gasoline

FOR the purpose of altering the criteria as to which retail service station dealers do not have to post in a prescribed manner the price of gasoline and special fuels ; and delaying the date by which certain dealers must comply with regulations regarding the display of the total cost of gasoline, gasohol, kerosene, or diesel fuel.
