Article 8 - Cecil County

[1-25.

The county commissioners shall, before making their annual levy in each and every year, contract for printing and publishing, for the period of one year from the date of making such contract, all matters required by law to be published, except the public local laws, which may be passed at each session of the general assembly, in two newspapers, and not more than two, which papers shall be of large circulation and published in Cecil County.]

[1-26.

The county commissioners shall cause to be published in two newspapers, published in Cecil County and having a large circulation therein, and not more than two, all public local laws passed at each session of the general assembly affecting Cecil County, and made to take effect from the date of their passage, once a week for three successive weeks.]

-[1-29.

The County Commissioners of Cecil County [in addition to the annual statement of county expenditures, required to be made out and published by law,] shall publish all records of county expenses in their minutes, which shall be made available for public inspection.

[All bills shall be presented ten days before payment and made available for inspection in the office of the county commissioners. Any taxpayer desiring to object to the payment of any claim or claims must file a protest in writing with the board of county commissioners before the expiration of said ten days, specifying the claim or claims objected to, together with the reason for the objection, and upon the filing of the objections, it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners to set it down for hearing
