CHAPTER 603

(House Bill 174)

AN ACT concerning

Public Service Commission - Master Metering

FOR the purpose of permitting the Public Service Commission to authorize central heating and cooling systems for certain new residential multiple occupancy buildings when proven to result in substantial net energy savings over individually metered systems; redefining submetering to include the installation of equipment for the purpose of determining the actual use of gas per certain units; authorizing the Public Service Commission to promulgate rules, regulations, and standards for gas submetering; and generally relating to gas and electric metering.
