

1874, thence with the line with allowance of 3° variation south 32° 45' east 45.3 perches to the place of beginning, containing 14.7 acres, more or less. On the south side of the road, beginning for the same at this end of the 4th line of a conveyance from John N. Maus to James E. Fowler, Nov. 29, 1852, in J. G. H. 2, folio 216, thence north according to the line of the tract to the center of the county road leading from Bladensburg to Colesville (now known as the Piney Branch or Avenel Road), thence with the center of the road in the direction of Colesville to the line of James Parker's land, thence with the Parker's land to the 5th line of the deed from John N. Maus to James I. Fowler, thence with the 5th line to the place of beginning, containing 50 acres, more or less.

The jurisdiction of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission is hereby extended to include the territory hereinabove described, and the area shall be subject to all the rules, regulations, etc., of the commission, and all of the provisions of law relating to the district including taxes, assessments and benefit charges levied in all other parts of the district.

[19-]16.

The area of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District within Montgomery County, and the jurisdiction of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission are hereby extended to include that additional territory within the following described boundaries: Beginning at a point on Wilson Lane 545 feet, more or less, northeasterly from the intersection of the Wilson Lane with Conduit Road; thence with the boundary of Cabin John Park, northwesterly 2678 feet, more or less, to intersect the easterly boundary of the R. W. Walker Tract; thence northeasterly with the boundary of the Walker Tract 1192 feet, more or less, to a point where the boundary bends northwesterly, thence leaving the Walker Tract, and crossing the property of the Bannackburn Heights Improvement Company, easterly 1485 feet, more or less, to intersect Wilson Lane at a point on the northerly boundary of the old Glen Echo School property, now the property of J. S. Taylor; thence with Wilson Lane in a southwesterly direction to the place of beginning.

The Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission may, whenever it deems advisable, construct a water and sewer system or systems, either or both, in any or all parts of the territory hereinabove described and water or sewer systems or any extensions thereto shall be taken and considered as part of the commission's general system and subject to all of the rules, regulations, assessments and benefits affecting the same as part of the territory of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District for the purpose of direct tax or any or all of the provisions of chapter 122 of the Acts of 1918 and any amendments thereto. The additional