

Fairspring-Springfield-Hill Road to a point opposite the south corner of the United States Government property known as the Patuxent Research Refuge, thence at right angles and crossing the Fairspring-Springfield-Hill Road to the south corner of the Patuxent Research Refuge property, thence in a generally northeasterly direction with the southeasterly boundary of the Patuxent Research Refuge property to the Patuxent River and the boundary between Prince George's and Anne Arundel counties, thence in a generally southeasterly direction with the center of the Patuxent River and the boundary between Prince George's and Anne Arundel counties to the point where the boundary crosses latitude 39° 00' north, thence due west to a point east of, at right angles to and 200 feet distant from the east side of High Bridge Road, thence in a generally southerly direction east of, parallel to and 200 feet distant from the east side of High Bridge Road to the east side of the right of way of the railroad running between Bowie and Popes Creek, thence in a generally southeasterly direction with the east side of said railroad to a point south of, at right angles to and 200 feet distant from the south side of the Defense Highway, thence in a generally westerly direction south of, parallel to and 200 feet distant from the south side of the Defense Highway to a point east of and 200 feet distant from the east side of the George N. Palmer Highway, thence in a generally southwesterly direction south of, parallel to and 200 feet distant from the south side of the Palmer Highway to the existing boundary of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District, thence with the existing boundary of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District to the point of beginning.

(c) All of that part of Spaulding's, Oxon Hill and Surratt's Election Districts in Prince George's County within the following metes and bounds: Beginning at a point on the Southern Maryland Pike (sometimes called Naylor Road), east of and 200 feet distant from the east side of St. Barnabas Church Road the point also being on the existing boundary of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District and running, thence in a generally southwesterly direction east of, parallel to, and 200 feet distant from the east side of St. Barnabas Church Road to a point south of and 200 feet distant from the south side of Ernshaw Road, also called Brinkley Road, at Phelps Corner, thence in a generally easterly direction south of, parallel to and 200 feet distant from the south side of Ernshaw Road to a point west of and 200 feet distant from the west side of Temple Hills Road, thence in a generally southerly direction west of, parallel to and 200 feet distant from the west side of Temple Hills Road to the road between Palmers Corner and Camp Springs at Padgetts Corner, thence at right angles to the road between Palmers Corner and Camp Springs to a point south of and 200 feet distant from the south side of said road, thence in a generally northeasterly direction south of, parallel to and 200 feet distant from the south side of