

correctional education curriculum, to be appointed by the State Board for Higher Education, and three correctional, parole or probation officers or officials of the State to be appointed by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor, to represent different geographic areas of the State, the appointments to be made to three-year terms provided that, for the initial term, one official shall be appointed for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, and one for a term of three years.

(2) The deputy secretary [for] OF PUBLIC SAFETY AND correctional services OR THE DEPUTY SECRETARY'S REPRESENTATIVE shall be the chairman of the Commission.

(3) Each [officeholder] COMMISSION MEMBER, except [the deputy secretary for correctional services and] the three persons appointed by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services may serve personally at any or all commission meetings or may designate a member of his respective association, office, department, university or college, bureau or agency to represent and act for him at the meetings as if he were personally present.

204E.

(a) The Advisory Board for Correction, Parole and Probation is established as part of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services. The deputy secretary [for] OF PUBLIC SAFETY AND correctional services, OR THE DEPUTY SECRETARY'S REPRESENTATIVE, the chairman of the Board of Parole, the Director of Parole and Probation, and the Commissioner of Correction shall be ex officio members of the Advisory Board, and shall be entitled to all of the rights and privileges of membership except the right to vote on matters coming before the Board. In addition to the ex officio members, the Advisory Board shall have thirteen regular members who shall be appointed by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor, for terms of four years each. Any of the regular members may be removed by the Secretary, with the approval of the Governor, at any time for good cause shown. All seven persons who are regular members of the Advisory Board of the Department of Parole and Probation and six of the persons who are regular members of the Advisory Board of the Department of Correction (but not including the person who is chairman) as of June 30, 1970, shall on July 1, 1970 become regular members of the Advisory Board for Correction, Parole and Probation; and each such person shall continue to serve as a regular member of the Advisory Board for Correction, Parole and Probation until the expiration of the term which he had been appointed to either the Advisory Board of the Department of Parole and Probation or the Advisory Board of Correction; and thereafter his successor shall be appointed for a term of four years. The Governor