(f) (3) Claim for Return of Confiscated Property. Any lawful lien holder, or other person showing a legal right, title or interest in confiscated property not destroyed as provided in this section, may within thirty (30) days of confiscation or, if the confiscated property is a vehicle, vessel or aircraft, within thirty (30) days of publication of notice, file a claim protesting such seizure with the Comptroller. When such a claim and protest is filed the circuit court for the county [or City of Baltimore] wherein the property was confiscated shall proceed in rem to hear and determine the question of forfeiture.

(a) A Class A beer and light wine license shall be issued by the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the place of business is located[, or by the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City, if the place of business is located in the city]. The license shall authorize the holder thereof to keep for sale, and to sell beer and light wines at retail, in any quantity to any consumers, at the place therein described, and to deliver the same in a sealed package or container, which package or container shall not be opened nor its contents consumed on the premises where sold. The annual fee for the license shall be $35 and shall be payable to the clerk, before any license is issued, for distribution as hereinafter provided.

14.

(a) A Class B beer and light wine license shall be issued by the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the place of business is located, [or by the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City, if the place of business is located in the city,] and shall authorize the holder thereof to keep for sale and sell beer and light wines at retail at any hotel or restaurant, at the place therein described, for consumption on the premises or elsewhere. The annual fee for the license shall be $60, and shall be payable to the clerk, before any license is issued, for distribution as herein provided.

14A.

(a) A Class H beer and light wine license shall be issued by the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the place of business is located, [or by the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore City, if the place of business is located in that city,] and authorizes the holder to keep for sale and sell beer and light wines at retail at any hotel or restaurant, at the place therein described, for consumption on the premises. The annual fee for the license
