

licenses, nor shall the provisions of § 117 except that no person under the age of eighteen shall be employed in such establishments for the sale of alcoholic beverages.

(2) The procedure in issuing such licenses shall be prescribed by rule or regulation of the board of license commissioners and shall conform as near as practicable to the procedure prescribed in § 60 of this article. No such license shall be authorized to be issued by the board of license commissioners unless the said license is in the judgment of the said board reasonably necessary for the convenience of the public.

(3) The board of license commissioners shall not authorize the issuance of a Class B beer, wine and liquor license for any establishment where patrons are entertained as above set forth unless the board shall find that the said establishment is a restaurant as same is defined in this article.

(4) Licenses issued under the authority of this subsection shall be subject to all the provisions of this article relating to licenses in Baltimore City to the extent that said provisions are not inconsistent with this subsection.

(5) All such licenses shall be issued by the clerk of the [Court of Common Pleas] CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE CITY upon certification by the board of license commissioners of Baltimore City.

(6) The annual fee for such licenses is $750 which is in addition to the regular annual fee paid for Class D beer, wine and liquor licenses.

(1) The board of license commissioners of Baltimore City may authorize the issuance of an additional license, to be known as a Class B-D-7 beer, wine and liquor license. Such special license shall authorize the holder thereof to keep for sale and sell all alcoholic beverages at retail at the place therein described, for consumption on the premises or elsewhere, during the hours from 6 o'clock a.m. to 2 o'clock a.m. on the day following, seven days per week.

(2) All present restaurant licensees having a valid Class B beer, wine and liquor license and all present licensees having a valid Class D beer, wine and liquor license with the special amusement license shall at their option automatically be entitled to exchange their present license for a Class B-D-7 license; provided, however, that all special restrictions imposed on the particular Class B or Class D with special amusement license being exchanged shall remain in effect and apply to the new license until changed by the license commissioners.
