

(f) The decision of the court thus given shall be final and effective at once. No further appeal shall lie nor shall there be any other remedy by which the local board's decision may be reviewed in court, either by way of mandamus, injunction, certiorari or otherwise. However, if any judge of the circuit court of any county[, or the Baltimore City Court,] shall in any case finally decide a point of law at variance with any decision previously rendered by any other judge of the State on the same question, an appeal may be taken from the decision rendered to the Court of Special Appeals. Any such appeal shall not stay the action of the lower court. The Court of Special Appeals shall only decide the question of law involved in such an appeal and shall not pass upon any question of fact.

For the purpose of all hearings and inquiries which the Comptroller, the board of license commissioners for any county [or Baltimore City], or the State Appeal Board are authorized to hold and make, the official, boards and Appeal Board, and the respective members thereof, are authorized to issue summons for witnesses, and to administer to them oaths or affirmations, and all summonses so issued shall be served by the police department of the City of Baltimore or by the sheriff of any of the counties. If any witness so summoned shall refuse or neglect to attend, or attending, refuse to testify, the official issuing the summons shall report the facts to [the Superior Court of Baltimore City, or] the circuit court for the county, [as the case may be,] and the court is hereby authorized and directed to proceed by attachment against the witness in all respects as if neglect or refusal had been by a witness summoned to appear in the court in a case pending before it. In Anne Arundel County, Prince George's County, Carroll County, Baltimore County, Baltimore City, and Howard County, and Worcester County the boards of license commissioners are also authorized to subpoena any records or papers pertaining to a licensed business or establishment. If any witness shall refuse to produce any records or papers so subpoenaed the board shall report the fact to the circuit court for the county [or the Superior Court of Baltimore City as the case may be], and the court is hereby authorized and directed to proceed by attachment against the witness in all respects as if the refusal had been by a witness summoned to appear in the court in a case pending before it.
