282.

(d) The Department may, in its discretion, suspend any registration simultaneously with the institution of proceedings under this section in cases where it finds that there is an imminent danger to the public health or safety. Such suspension shall continue in effect until the conclusion of such proceedings, including judicial review thereof, unless sooner withdrawn by the Department or dissolved by the appropriate circuit court [or the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City as the case may be].

297.

(b) (4) (i) All applications for the forfeiture of money or currency contraband shall be made by the director of finance of Baltimore City, the county treasurer, municipal treasurer, or the Attorney General. The applications shall be by petition, affidavit and show cause order and shall be filed in the District Court or circuit court of the county [or in the District Court of Baltimore City or a law court of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City].

418A.

The circuit courts of the counties [and the equity courts of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City] have jurisdiction to enjoin the sale or distribution of any book, magazine, or any other publication or article (including a motion picture film or showing) which is prohibited from sale or distribution, as hereinafter specified.

1. The State's attorneys of the counties [and Baltimore City] in which a person, firm or corporation sells or distributes or is about to sell or distribute or has in his possession with intent to sell or distribute or is about to acquire possession with intent to sell or distribute any book, magazine, pamphlet, newspaper, story paper, writing paper, picture, card, drawing or photograph (including a motion picture film or showing) or any article or instrument of use which is obscene, within the meaning of § 418 of this article may maintain an action for an injunction against such person, firm or corporation in the circuit court of the counties [or the equity courts of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City] to prevent the sale or further sale or the distribution or further distribution or the acquisition, publication or possession within this State of any book, magazine, pamphlet, newspaper, story paper, writing paper, picture, card, drawing or photograph
