

(including a motion picture film or showing), or any article or instrument of use which is obscene.

2. The person, firm, or corporation sought to be enjoined is entitled to a trial of the issues within one day after joinder of issue and a decision shall be rendered by the court within two days after the conclusion of the trial.

3. In the event that an order or judgment be entered in favor of the State's attorney and against the person, firm or corporation sought to be enjoined, such final order or judgment shall contain a provision directing the person, firm or corporation to surrender to such peace officer as the court may direct or to the sheriff of the county in which the action was brought any of the matter described in this section and such sheriff or officer shall be directed to seize and destroy the same.

4. In any action brought pursuant to the provisions of this section, the State's attorney is not required to file any bond before the issuance of an injunction order provided for by this section, is not liable for costs and is not liable for damages sustained by reason of the injunction order in cases where judgment is rendered in favor of the person, firm or corporation sought to be enjoined.

5. Every person, firm or corporation who sells, distributes or acquires possession with intent to sell or distribute any of the matter described in this section, after the service upon him of a summons and complaint in an action brought by the State's attorney [of the county or Baltimore City] pursuant to this section is chargeable with knowledge of the contents thereof.

443.

(g) Any person aggrieved by the action of the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police and/or his duly authorized agent or agents may appeal the disapproval of his or her application for a pistol and revolver dealer's license to the circuit court of the county where the applicant's intended place of business is to be conducted [or to the Baltimore City Court, if the applicant's intended place of business is to be conducted within the limits of Baltimore City]. Such appeal must be filed not later than thirty days from the date written notification of disapproval to the prospective licensee was mailed by the said Superintendent and/or his duly authorized agent or agents. The court wherein an appeal is properly and timely filed shall affirm or reverse the determination of disapproval rendered by the said Superintendent and/or his duly authorized agent or agents, depending upon whether it finds that any false information or statement was supplied or made by the applicant, or that the application was not