

the review proceeding in connection with an application for sentence review under this subtitle.

689.

(d) The Maryland Correctional Institution -- Hagerstown, which is a place of confinement and training for male offenders from sixteen (16) to twenty-five (25) years of age, both inclusive. In those cases in which the judge of the [Supreme Bench of] CIRCUIT COURT FOR Baltimore City, who is assigned to exercise jurisdiction in juvenile causes, may waive jurisdiction and order a minor under the age of sixteen, and the judge of any circuit court in any county exercising jurisdiction in juvenile causes, may waive jurisdiction and order a minor under the age of eighteen, to be held for action under the regular procedure that would follow if such act or acts had been committed by an adult, then and in that event the judge presiding in the [criminal courts of Baltimore City and the judge of the] circuit court of any county upon assuming jurisdiction in such case and upon conviction may commit the minor to the Maryland Correctional Institution -- Hagerstown regardless of age. The courts of this State, instead of imposing sentences of fixed duration upon male offenders included within this subsection may sentence them to the Maryland Correctional Institution -- Hagerstown for an indeterminate period of time which may not exceed the maximum term of imprisonment provided by statute for the offenses of which said person was convicted; and in the event no penalty is prescribed by statute for said offenses then the court shall prescribe the maximum term of imprisonment; but nothing in this sentence applies to any case in which the sentence is life imprisonment or to the service of time for nonpayment of a fine.

690.

(a) The provisions of this section are applicable to any judge of the circuit court for any county[, the judges of the Criminal Court of Baltimore] and any judge of the District Court, exercising criminal jurisdiction, and all of such persons are described herein as "judge."

703.

The [Criminal Court of Baltimore City, and the] circuit court of the county where a state correctional institution or facility is located, at least once each calendar year, shall charge the grand jury attending thereupon to inquire into the conduct and management of each of the State correctional institutions or correctional facilities within the jurisdiction of the court and to make presentments of all offenses and omissions of any person in or relating to said State correctional institutions or facilities.