F. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Annotated Code of Maryland, a judge of [the Criminal Court of Baltimore,] the circuit court for any county[, ] or any judge of the District Court[, ] may sentence a convicted offender to a regional detention center; if the sentence to be then executed is for a period of not more than 18 months and the court imposing the sentence is located within a jurisdiction which is a party to the operation and maintenance of the facility to which the person is sentenced.

730.

(h) (2) In case of disobedience or refusal to obey any of these summonses, the chief, or hearing board, may apply to [the Baltimore City Court or] the circuit court of any county[, as the case may be,] where the summonsed party resides or conducts business, for an order requiring the attendance and testimony of the witness and the production of books, papers, records, and documents, without cost. Upon a finding that the attendance and testimony of the witness, or the production of the books, papers, records, and documents sought is relevant or necessary, the court may issue an order requiring the attendance, testimony, or production of books, papers, records and documents without cost, and any failure to obey an order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

732.

Appeal from decisions rendered in accordance with § 731 shall be taken to the circuit court [of the counties or the Baltimore City Court] FOR THE COUNTY pursuant to Maryland Rule B2. Any party aggrieved by a decision of a court under this subtitle may appeal to the Court of Special Appeals.

734.

Any law-enforcement officer who is denied any right afforded by this subtitle may apply at any time prior to the commencement of the hearing before the hearing board, either individually or through his certified or recognized employee organization, to the circuit court of the circuit [or the Baltimore City Court] where he is regularly employed for any order directing the law-enforcement agency to show cause why the right should not be afforded.

743.

(f) "Criminal justice agency" means any government agency or subunit of any such agency which is authorized by law to exercise the power of arrest, detention, prosecution, adjudication, correctional supervision, rehabilitation, or
